This correction does not change the interpretation or conclusions from these data as it is reported in the text that at 6 days postinoculation, 97% and 98% of cells had Seoul virus N protein following infection with Seoul virus at MOIs of 0.5 and 5, respectively.